ABOUT FIRST BOOK & OUR NETWORK

First Book is a national, nonprofit social enterprise committed to elevating educational opportunities for children in need. Over the past 30 years, First Book has distributed more than 200 million books and resources to a network of 500,000+ educators working in underserved communities. All educators, caregivers, and providers working in a Title I eligible school, early childhood or out-of-school-time program, shelter, clinic, or other organization in which at least 70% of children served come from low-income families are eligible to join the First Book Community for free.

Benefits of Membership

- Stretch limited budgets — access free and low-cost books and resources for children in low-income, historically excluded communities
- Add voice to the largest and fastest growing community of those working with children in need to help ensure equal access to quality education
- Leverage large-scale resource distribution capability
- Access micro-funding for books and resources

ARIZONA IMPACT STORY

Read on Arizona is a statewide public/private partnership of state agencies who have worked with First Book to increase access to books for kids 0-8, leveraging existing partners in early literacy and parent engagement programs including Childcare and preschool programs, Title 1 elementary schools, WIC clinics, and public housing sites. This partnership has engaged hundreds of educators and providers throughout the state and distributed over 30,000 books to children in need.
