ABOUT FIRST BOOK & OUR NETWORK

First Book is a national, nonprofit social enterprise committed to elevating educational opportunities for children in need. Over the past 30 years, First Book has distributed more than 200 million books and resources to a network of 500,000+ educators working in underserved communities. All educators, caregivers, and providers working in a Title I eligible school, early childhood or out-of-school-time program, shelter, clinic, or other organization in which at least 70% of children served come from low-income families are eligible to join the First Book Community for free.

Benefits of Membership

- Stretch limited budgets — access free and low-cost books and resources for children in low-income, historically excluded communities
- Add voice to the largest and fastest growing community of those working with children in need to help ensure equal access to quality education
- Leverage large-scale resource distribution capability
- Access micro-funding for books and resources

LOUISIANA IMPACT STORY

Together, First Book and United Way of Southeast Louisiana, provided books to meet the interest and skill level of children in 3rd grade and below by focusing on developing early literacy skills and improving reading attitudes and behaviors. The partnership with United Way was built on existing relationships, including the Kay Fennelly Summer Literacy Institute, which provided training, coaching, materials, and stipends to 20 afterschool and summer camp programs that reached more than 1,500 children throughout a year-long collaboration.
