ABOUT FIRST BOOK & OUR NETWORK

First Book is a national, nonprofit social enterprise committed to elevating educational opportunities for children in need. Over the past 30 years, First Book has distributed more than 200 million books and resources to a network of 500,000+ educators working in underserved communities. All educators, caregivers, and providers working in a Title I eligible school, early childhood or out-of-school-time program, shelter, clinic, or other organization in which at least 70% of children served come from low-income families are eligible to join the First Book Community for free.

Benefits of Membership

- Stretch limited budgets — access free and low-cost books and resources for children in low-income, historically excluded communities
- Add voice to the largest and fastest growing community of those working with children in need to help ensure equal access to quality education
- Leverage large-scale resource distribution capability
- Access micro-funding for books and resources

SOUTH CAROLINA IMPACT STORY

Beaufort County Schools is a longstanding, valued First Book partner, and works closely with our Special Orders team bi-annually to procure summer reading books for the students at their 31 elementary and middle schools. The county also orders copies of award-nominated titles to their students to vote on likely winners. During the school closures in 2020, Beaufort County Schools partnered with the United Way of the Lowcountry to plan Book Droop Extravaganza, an even that provided weekly home deliveries of book bags to rural children's homes where transportation to pick-up sites wasn't available.
