ABOUT FIRST BOOK & OUR NETWORK

First Book is a national, nonprofit social enterprise committed to elevating educational opportunities for children in need. Over the past 30 years, First Book has distributed more than 200 million books and resources to a network of 500,000+ educators working in underserved communities. All educators, caregivers, and providers working in a Title I eligible school, early childhood or out-of-school-time program, shelter, clinic, or other organization in which at least 70% of children served come from low-income families are eligible to join the First Book Community for free.

Benefits of Membership

- Stretch limited budgets — access free and low-cost books and resources for children in low-income, historically excluded communities
- Add voice to the largest and fastest growing community of those working with children in need to help ensure equal access to quality education
- Leverage large-scale resource distribution capability
- Access micro-funding for books and resources

SOUTH DAKOTA IMPACT STORY

United Way of Black Hills serves as a backbone organization to help children reach reading proficiency by 3rd grade. The program partnered with school districts, specifically Title I schools and early childhood education providers, to provide resources and support in order to effectively educate children living in the most vulnerable communities. The partnership expanded and strengthened the current base of educators by providing additional tools and an avenue for accessing First Book's resources on an ongoing basis.
